

Name: Wendy Breckon

Age: 57

Occupation: Attorney

Education and Qualifications:

You deserve a voice representing our community. As a founding member and Chair of the Vacaville Community Association, I regularly advocate for citizens at Council meetings and other public meetings. I believe government should work for us and be open and accountable.

I recently retired after 19 years as an attorney with the State of California litigating and providing advice on complex public policy issues. My husband is a retired deputy sheriff and veteran. As a grandmother, and 30-year Vacaville resident, I will dedicate myself to promoting responsible spending, and prioritizing community needs that contribute to Vacaville's quality of life. Understanding local business needs and finding creative ways to assist is also critical due to COVID-19. As a council member, I will make a difference due to my research and analytical skills, my ability to ask tough questions, and commitment to take a stand for you over special interests.

My career as a public attorney, degrees from McGeorge and UCLA, and involvement in community advocacy have prepared me to effectively represent you on the City Council. I would be honored to have your vote and commit to being your voice for District 1.
